ANTHONY WAYNE

VIBE

Anthony Wayne Vibe is a four piece musical collective from Southwest Virginia and Northeast Tennessee. A beautiful area, ripe with mountainous forests and skies for days, where many call Home. Where four different musicians met and created their brand of genreless Vibe. Taking time to create this brand of Vibe they wanted, the band had been kicking around, writing and touring since 2018. As well, for years individually, long before meeting. It is often said that a band can be genre defining or to be easily compared to or paralleled with an artist or band currently on a certain chart. AWW did not set out to be genreless but with so many influences and a vast creative pallet, individually and collectively, has given AWW a challenging classification and ultimately, Freedom. Influences ranging from Singer Songwriter, Metal, Punk, Percussion, Poetry, Theater and most places in between, allow them diversity. Unable to prevent all artistic outlets to spoil their Vibe, the Anthony Wayne Vibe are equal parts Indie, Americana, Jam, Rock, and Progressive. That is just the start of what might be. A genreless, free spirited collective compass, with so many points North that, Home is all around them and wherever they go. Utilizing harmonies, guitars, samples, drums, percussion, bass, rhythm and groove; AWW are allowing their hands and hearts to deliver a unique Vibe unlike anything seen before. With a vibrant and raucous stage delivery, Anthony Wayne Vibe are Live and Ready.
