BORN IN EAST TENNESSEE SAMSON FERRELL BEGAN HIS MUSICAL EDUCATION LIKE MANY IN THE SOUTH. IN CHURCH. AFTER SEEING A VHS OF STEVIE RAY VAUGHN PLAYING IN A LOCAL RECORD SHOP HE MADE UP HIS MIND TO PURSUE MUSIC. HIS UNCLE SHOWED HIM THREE STANDARD CHORDS ON AN OLD SAMICK GUITAR AND HE WAS READY TO GO. HE BEGAN PLAYING WITH THE OLD BLUEGRASS PICKERS IN HIS CHURCH. LEARNING SONGWRITING AND NEW STYLES IN THE PROCESS. FERRELL RETURNED TO MUSIC IN 2014. OFTEN PERFORMING FOR VETERANS WITH WHOM HE SHARES A DEEP CONNECTION. HE HAS BEEN PERFORMING SOLO SHOWS ACROSS THE SOUTHEAST EVER SINCE. SAMSON DRAWS INSPIRATION FROM THE LIKES OF WAYLON JENNINGS, THE STEELDRIVERS AND CHRIS STAPLETON. HIS SONGS TOUCH ON STORIES FROM THE DARK SIDE OF THE MOUNTAIN. WITH AN APPALACHIAN VALLEY VIBRATO THAT PURRS LIKE A WELL TUNED ENGINE HE GROONS THROUGH SONGS OF GUNSLINGING GRANDFATHERS AND WHISKEY SOAKED TALES. WHEN SAMSON SHOWS UP YOU CAN BET ON A WHOLE LOTTA FUN AND JUST A LITTLE BIT OF DANGER.
